The Transportation Training Academy (UVA TTA), housed at the University of Virginia, has served as the FHWA-designated Local Technical Assistance Program (LTAP) for the Commonwealth of Virginia since 2006. UVA TTA/LTAP is an active member of the Mid-Atlantic Regional LTAP network, collaborating with counterparts in Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and West Virginia to train thousands of transportation professionals every year. Through outreach channels that include over 25,000 local, state and private professionals throughout the megaregion and surrounding areas, UVA TTA/VA LTAP connects individuals with the information they need in the format that works best for them.
